

Scattery Island Heritage and Tourism Forum

Vessels attending Scattery Island Gathering 6th & 7th July 2013

Saturday July 6th 2013

Low water at Scattery: 1100hrs High Water at Scattery: 1740hrs

Scattery Island Ferries running full service to Scattery from Marina and Cappa Pier

Arrival of Boats at Scattery

1300 – 1600hrs

Sally O' Keefe,
Naval Reserve Kilrush,
West Clare Currachs
Rocksborough Gondolas
Bunratty Gondolas
Dutch Barge 'Driftin'
Foynes Mermaids
Shannon Hookers
St. Marys Maritime Project (Naomh Mhuire)
'St. Cannera II' – Kilkenny
West of Ireland Sea Kayaking Association

Sat PM

Kilrush RNLI Lifeboat (patrolling & on standby)

Sat PM

Dolphin Watch Carrigaholt 'Draíocht'

Start time to be confirmed 1400hrs?

Foynes Yacht Club, Mermaids, Sally O'Keefe & Royal Western Yacht Club of Ireland (Kilrush) will cruise/race round Scattery Island starting from Cappa pier, around Scattery Island and finishing & anchoring in Lighthouse Bay.

1615hrs

The medieval stone carvings will be returned to Scattery Island from Cappa pier on board Pilot Boat 'Loop Head' (Shannon Foynes Port Co).

1900hrs

'Shannon Dolphin' from ShannonFerry Group will sail by Aylevarroo (Dolphins Leap), then Hog Island, Cappa Pier onto Scattery Island Pier, Scattery Lighthouse and then return to Killimer. The 'Shannon Dolphin' will sail by Scattery on this trip and will not land on this occasion. (Subject to MSO approval)

SAIL AGAINST CANCER IRELAND

BOAT NAME: 'INIZI' (FYC)

CREW: CHRIS EGAN, DAVE BEVAN & GERRY HUTTON

These gallant men have just completed a Round Ireland Sail to raise funds for this worthy cause. You can follow 'Sail against Cancer Ireland' on Facebook.

Note: All boaters are responsible for their own crews and safety during this event.

Please note in small open boats, lifejackets are to be worn at all times.

Scattery Island Heritage & Tourism Forum

Sunday July 7th

Low water at Scattery: 1145hrs High Water at Scattery: 1815hrs

Note: Strong running tides between 1430 and 1700hrs

Scattery Island Ferries running full service from Marina (from Midday until 1330hrs)
and from Cappa Pier from 1330hrs onwards

1300 – 1500hrs

Arrival of Boats from :

West Clare Currachs
Ballylongford (Saleen Pier)
Carrigaholt
Kilbaha
Deal River (Ashkeaton)
Foynes Yacht Club
Royal Western Yacht Club of Ireland
Kilrush RNLi (on standby & patrolling)
'St. Cannera II' – Kilkenny
Rocksborough Gondolas
Bunratty Gondolas
Knock Pier (Dutch Barge)
Kildysart Quay
Labasheeda
Tarbert Boat Club
(Naomh Mhuire)

PM

Currach Racing (to be arranged)
Gondola Rowing (Shoreline)

PM

Mermaid Racing (to be arranged)

PM

Yacht Racing (FYC , RWYCI and Sally O' Keefe) (tba)

1600 – 1700hrs

Water Canon Display (.3 of a nautical mile to the northeast of Scattery Island Lighthouse) Multicat 'Shannon 1' (Shannon Foynes Port Company) and Tug boat 'Celtic Banner' from Celtic Tugs Ltd. (subject to availability and MSO approval)

1715hrs

Departure of all visiting vessels from the East of Scattery who will take advantage of the last of the flood tide to carry them home.

1830hrs

Departure of all Western visiting vessels who will return home on the west running ebbing tide.

SAIL AGAINST CANCER IRELAND

BOAT NAME: 'INIZI' (FYC)

CREW: CHRIS EGAN, DAVE BEVAN & GERRY HUTTON

These gallant men have just completed a Round Ireland Sail to raise funds for this worthy cause. You can follow 'Sail against Cancer Ireland' on Facebook.

Scattery Island Heritage & Tourism Forum

VHF Channel for Scattery Gathering Weekend: 06

Richard Glynn Ph: 086 120 3144

Diarmuid Whelan Ph: 087 768 8469

Ian Lynch Ph: 086 225 3549

Note to all boaters: Please keep clear and give a wide berth to Scattery Island Ferries as they will be running a continuous service and keep ferry berth clear at all times. (North side stepped berth) Give a very wide berth to the Shannon Dolphin which will be passing Cappa and Scattery pier at approx. 1900hrs on Saturday 7th. Also give good clearance to the 'Shannon 1' and the 'Celtic Isle' on Sunday afternoon.

Free Berthing: Kilrush Marina welcomes all to the Scattery Gathering and is offering a free berth in the Marina which is available to all boats who wish to stay overnight on Saturday 6th July.

Contact Marina on VHF Channel: 80 Ph.: 065 9052072